PURPOSE OF WORK:

Learning facts and events related to the date of my birth and presenting them in a slide photo presentation

HYPOTHESIS:

The study of events related to the date of birth of the researcher, helps to expand his horizons.

PROBLEM:

There is not enough knowledge about the holidays of the country of the studied language, the lives of famous people and the events that took place on my birthday.

TASKS:

1. Identify sources of information on the topic of the study;
2. Find information about where this holiday originated;
3. Find information about the events that took place on my birthday, about the holidays of the world and famous people born on June 13;
4. Analyze, organize and prepare the material for the slide presentation;
5. Improve translation skills when working with bilingual dictionaries;
6. Create a presentation on the topic of design and research work.

Urgency:

Everyone is interested in events related to his life. It was important for me to know why my parents gave me the name "Emir" and, of course, what was happening that day not only in my family. Who from famous people was born 13 June, what holidays or other known dates are celebrated in day my birth, what events occurred in this period history. Why is this so important to me?

First, studying the information related to me personally, my family and I will remember a day that is very dear to my parents and may be associated with famous people and facts from the history of the world, which will help me expand my horizons.

Secondly, my research can serve as an example for classmates who learn about my experience, will be interested in the events that occurred on their birthday, and thus receive additional information.

What is a "birthday"?

A birthday is the day of the year on which a birthday person was born. A Birthday is a holiday celebrated around the world, regardless of a person's race or gender.

Introduction

13-th of June, 2007

I was born in summer. It was at 20-30. The weather was sunny, but It was raining. My parents were happy that I was born.

Parents' memories:

Mum's memories:

My little son appeared on the thirteenth of June. At first we wanted to give him a name of Irek. I was disappointed a bit, because this name was not for him. I looked at him and thought "What is your name?" and suddenly I understood "Emir!"

Holidays on the day I was born:

1. Holiday Kurolesov.
2. Day of St. Anthony, the patron Saint of lovers, animals and all desperate ones.
3. Sewing machine day.
4. International day of dissemination of information about albinism.

Execution result design and research works:

In the process of carrying out design and research work, I found out that many historical events are associated with the date of my birthday . On this day, in different years, many famous people were born who achieved success in their lives and became an example of dedication and creative attitude to their profession.

The acquired knowledge teaches me to be attentive to my relatives and to respect the history and culture of other people.

Thank you for your attention!!!
